EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN:

Straight Queensherry Rules-Fight All the Time-That Suits Nelson and McGovern Too.

BILLY NOLAN. Battling Nelson's manager, has evidently determined that Bat shall have every second of the six rounds to fight in. He doesn't want clinching to take any time out, or the referee to "butt in" and save Terry in the mix-ups.

Nolan will demand the following

The fight will be governed by straight Queensberry rules, not the usual Phila adelphia substitute.

The men will fight themselves free from the clinches, hitting and protect ing themselves at all times. They will break at the order of the referee, but that official must not lay a hand on either man. If either fighter repeatedly refuses to break, the referee must disqualify him.

In event of a knockdown the man who delivers it must retire to his corner until the count is finished or the man knocked down gets to his feet. The referee will not count. He is to watch the man who is standing. The counting will be done by an official timekeeper, who will stand at the edge of the platform with the timekeepers of the two fighters beside him to see that he counts fairly. The timekeeper counts the seconds from a watch.

The men are to be in the ring at 10 o'clock sharp, and to weigh in at five minutes past; then to dress and bandage their hands in the ring with bandages supplied by the referee. The weight is to be the light-weight limit.

BATTLING NELSON has had great crowds at his training quarters daily, and has made such an impression that very few in Philadelphia are willing to bet on McGovern,

There will be plenty of McGoverr money from New York and Brooklyn, however, and the betting at the last moment will be fast.

AT wound up his hard work Satur-day. Yesterday he only went out on the road. To-day he will play roke and run a bit to keep his wind good and avoid putting on weight. He is down to 181% pounds. Nelson is always confident of winning. Yesterday he said to a visitor: "I have been doing a lot of three-round boxing lately, and it has made me faster. I'll cut out the pace with McGovern, and I think I'll surprise a few people who saw me with Abe Attell here a year ago.

Govern has been doing his final stunts. Terry has cut out the boxing. The weight is easy for him. says he is "right," and he certainly over the near approach of the four-time pennant is a little slower, perhaps, than he was two or three years ago. But he can hit just as hard. He hasn't lost the punch. And he hasn't lost any of the fighting spirit either. Win or lose he will tear into Nelson like an infuriated wildcat.

Terry looks good. The only question in everybody's mind is whether or not he can take a blow on the chin without flincbing, as in the old days. He was badly dazed by Tommy Murphy's panches. Terry says he was weak then, not half so good and strong as he is now. Maybe Terry knows—maybe he doesn't. Only the fight can tell.

OOKING over the rules that have been turned out by Mr. Nolan. it seems to me that they suit Neison. If Terry manages to land a hight at the Metropolitan A. C., One knockout he will be light-weight champion. He wants every second of the hundred and Tenth street and Broad-O'Rourke in a businessilke way. plon. He wants every second of the time free for fighting. Then, too.

Terry is a natural infighter. He always wants to fight in the clinches and the counts. Considering that Peter had littered by the counts. Considering that Peter had littered by the counts. The best punches Maher could land under these circumstances were ways wants to fight in the clinches and breakaways. He never holds. When the other fellow clinches, Terry keeps pounding away at the body with both hands. I remember very well how he did that to one Billy Maynard, whom he knocked out in four rounds in this same ring three years ago. Maynard wanted to hug and hold on, but every time he tried it Terry fought himself free.

As for enforcing the rule that the deliverer of a knockdown must retire to his corner during a count, that is good for Terry too. If he knocks Nelson down it will do him good to have time to clear his own head of the excitement before he can mix in again. If he is knocked down it will give him a second or two more to recover in and Terry has always come back mulckly.

Although this clause is in the rules, it never has been enforced here, the referee usually being satisfied to make the standing fighter step back a couple of yards. All San Francisco counts are made in this fashion.

HE count by an official time- He worked his arms like one noted for keeper, who calls off the seconds ckeverness, too, and was soon exchanged crime of loudly from a watch held level ing wallops with O'Rourke. STRAIGHT QUEENSBERRY RULES FOR M'GOVERN AND NELSON.

BROOKLYN PLAYERS LEAVE FOR THE SOUTH

Headed by Manager Patsy Donovan, They Depart for Columbia, S. C., To-Day.

Another aggregation of balltossers left this vicinity to-day for the South, where they will go through a ourse of training in order to get into playing condition for the coming season. These players are the advance guard of the Brooklyn National League Club. They go to Columbia, S. C., where they will indulge in three weeks of hard work. Patsy Donovan, the new nanager of the club, will have charge of the players.

South will be Manager Donovan, Batch, Bergin, Butler, Easan, Jordan, Lewis, Malay, Maloney and Pettee. At Washington Alpernan Hummell, Bell, Pastorious and Gessler will join the party. Casey, McCarthy, Stricklett and McIntyre will go direct to the training-grounds from their homes. The latest players to sign a contract are Maloney, McCarthy, Lou Ritter and Pitcher Eimer Stricklett.

FOREIGN WRESTLER AFTER TOM JENKINS

Another foreign grappler who came here in search of mat honors is very hot over the manner in which he has been ignored by the Yankee wrestlers, and through his manager, Prof. Attila, sends broadcast a sweeping defi, challenging our best bone-breakers to combat. He is Fred Gruhn, wrestling in-structor at Columbia University and holder of the English and German titles. dso the weight-lifting championship of

His manager sent the following letter the sporting editor:

to the sporting editor:

"For the past seven months I have tried to obtain a match for Fred Gruhn with Tom Jenkins or any other American wrestler. I have been promised time and time again that Gruhn would be given a chance, but when the time came to make the match the Tankees had an excuse to offer. Jenkins was among the number, and there can only be one answer for his sidestepping, and that is that ne fears to tackle Gruhn, who is the holder of the English and German wrestling titles. He walso the champion weight lifter of the world and entitled to a match with the set man in America.

"He has the distinction of being the only man that ever threw Hackenschmidt. He accomplished this feat at the German gymnasium in London, lossing the Russian Lion at catch-ascatch-cap. It was at that time that Hackenschmidt engaged him to teacr him that style, and a great deal of the credit for the Russian's great wrestling ability belongs to his tutor. "I know of what I speak when I declare that Gruhn is one of the foremost athletes in the world. I developed Sandow and proclaim that this man is as perfect a specimen physically, and, what is more, is twice as strong as Sandow, for he has defeated the latter on two occasions in weight-lifting contests. Gruhn gave an exhibition of his wonderful strength to a number of reporters on his arrival here, and his great strength was murvelled at.

"He is the instructor of wrestling at Columbia and has backing to meet any American. I will make a match with any one, but prefer Jenkins, for he is the American champion and I know that Gruhn can beat him. It was on the advice of Hachenschmidt that Gruhn came to America. 'Hack' told him that he could beat the Yankees, and he is here to prove it. Respectfully yours.
